Sporting spirit from the very early age, In 2002 he discover the circus. He starts in "Flic" school and simultaneously, the physical theatre course at Atelier Teatro fisico. He starts street show all over Italy. He enters in "Ecole Supérieure des Arts du Cirque" (E.S.A.C.) specialization in hand-to-hand and Chinese pole. After 3 years program he presents a personal project "EXIT 7" in Chinese pole. He continues to work in collective creations, such as "IRRITATiON", by Rolf Alme and also gives various personal presentations. Upon his return to Turin he becomes a teacher of Chinese pole at circus school "Flic", and also starts to give workshops and professional seminars all over the Europe. Contemporaneously, he also performs in various show and collaborates in street theatre shows. In 2009 with Elisa creates the company "Ibonobi".

Paolo briefly:

"To reveal my dreams on the stage for me it presents an opportunity to exchange my energy with that of my audience and a way to scream out all of my feelings. This is the main reason I like to travel and take my work all over the world, living a diversity, researching the new forms of spectacle, astonishing others and myself. Through a physical work I feed my soul and my body."
